

IS YOUR RECORD ATTEMPT CAN BE A POTENTIAL ELITE WORLD RECORDS ACHIEVEMENT ?

APPLICATION CHECK LIST WILL BE THE FIRST STEP TOWARDS ELITE WORLD RECORD

EWR is always against to the wastage of your time through coming up with a record that is not acceptable. For this, we suggest you to go through necessary check list when you come up with an attempt or a proposal that purely comes under a new category. Keeping this kind of situation in mind, EWR is offering few examples of records that are not acceptable by EWR in a few areas that are currently very popular.

ANIMALS:

- EWR will not entertain claims in the following areas:
- Record Attempt based on the harming or killing of animals or living things.
- EWR will not entertain or endorse speed record for traveling over huge distances over horse back as it concerns the welfare of the horse or any other animals involved.
- EWR will not entertain any lightest or heaviest pets claims.
- EWR will not entertain separate category based on the breed and it would be an absolute record mentioning particular animal like "longest ever dog" or "oldest cat living" or "Oldest horse living".
- EWR will not entertain any endurance records such as 'longest time living with snakes'.

ART:

EWR will not be in a position to evaluate the quality in the case of artwork, small origami or articles (unless readable through a microscope) as it becomes highly tough to judge the smallest item in the world for a particular object. Here, EWR will study the largest objects in the world for the comparison sake.

HUMAN BEING:

- EWR do not accept any health related record attempts like individual living long live with Cancer, HIV/AIDS and diseases of such nature.
- EWR do not consider or accept any Record Attempt or claim for beauty as this is not an objectively measurable item.
- We do not accept faster or quicker or longest birth categories.
- We cannot entertain cancer survival for the claim as there are many varieties of cancer with varying severity and it is highly impossible to compare between each variety patients.
- EWR does not recognise 'gluttony' claims as this involves consumption of mass amounts of food.
- Elbow licking is completely an unacceptable claim by EWR.
- Largest head claim is not acceptable with EWR while the participant is with a medical condition known as elephantiasis.
- Public claims such as hunger strikes and fasting are no longer a category to recognize by EWR.
- Massage Marathon is one cannot be considered by EWR as it is highly tough to judge visually the style and form considered for the performing in the event.
- EWR will not recognize any medical records for claim such as most operations in a short time or some other.
- EWR cannot recognize sleeplessness and longest sleep for claim.
- EWR will not recognize thinnest people claim for record attempt event.

LITERATURE/LANGUAGE/ PUBLISHING:

- EWR will not recognize any attempt on a geographical language, literature or such other in nature. Any claim on language or literature should be global in nature.
- EWR will not recognize claims based on posts or emails like chain letters or similar with variations.
- Claims regarding to smallest handwriting is not acceptable by EWR as it is highly tough to standardize levels of writing quality, legibility, neatness etc.
- EWR do not entertain any category for most generations with the same name.
- EWR cannot consider any claims for the shortest or longest poem.
- Subject matter claims will not be considered by EWR.
- Silent reading is not recognized by EWR for claim.

MUSIC:

Record Attempts for listening to music or the radio for the longest duration is not considered by EWR as this is not possible to prove that the participant is concentrating and listening to the music. There is no category to recognize the shortest song or most songs written, but it should be in broader spectrum like Most people singing. We are not considering any claims in the jam sessions or improvisations. It is highly tough to judge the musical proficiency and quality in this aspect of performances.

PLANTS:

EWR is not considering any category for small plant or small fruit or small vegetable. Challenge is always about encouraging growing larger. Here, it is quite imperative to remember that a seed is the smallest one of this variety. We do accept some categories like Biggest brinjal grown, Biggest tomato cultivated and other kinds of similar nature.

QUALIFICATIONS – QUALIFIED-UNIQUENESS/UNUSUAL/ORIGINALITY/ONLY:

EWR do not accept records regarding acquired qualifications. This is highly impossible to quantify qualification. Here, each country has their own academic methods for awarding a qualification and therefore standardization would be highly impossible to make a comparison.

Generally, unusual, original, uniqueness and luck are highly impossible to quantify and ruled out from EWR categories for the record attempt. The EWR records categories are always open to be challenged at any time in the future. So, there should be a possibility to compare these future aspects objectively and fairly with the record. There are no categories with EWR such as 'only'. A record is always subjected to future breakability. Also, it should be measurable and comparable too.

TRANSPORT:

EWR do not endorse events that are with driving between two specific points with least amount of time limitations. As these events could result into damage or hurt for participants and spectators and involves safety and legality issues.
